Please read and follow all instructions explicitly before filing the application

General instructions:

1. You must attach a copy of your W-2 that shows both federal and local wages.
2. An authorized signature must be obtained from your employer. Other Substantiation may be substituted only with the express consent of an authorized employee of the Earned Income Tax Division.
3. You must sign this form.
4. You must file for refund between January 1, 2023 and December 31, 2025.
5. Your refund should be issued within 90 days from the date of receipt only if your return is completed in its entirety and all employers information has been filed with the city prior to your filing this return.
6. Any tax due must be paid by April 30, 2023.
7. If you are claiming a refund related to more than one employer, separate returns must be filed for each employer.
8. A letter from your employer on Company stationery must be attached to your refund application. All letters must be signed originals and dated; no copies will be accepted. The letter must state your allocation percentage, i.e. the percentage of days you worked outside of Wilmington, rounded to the nearest one-tenth of one percent. Where erroneous withholding is claimed, the letter must so state and provide the reason therefor. If any dates are listed as worked at home, the letter must state in the letter that the days worked at home were either for the employer's convenience or that you were required to work at home as a condition of your employment.

Specific instructions when claiming all allocation of earnings:

1. A bona fide non-resident of Wilmington, actually performing part or all of his work outside this city, shall file Form WCWT-5 where an allocation of wages, salaries, commissions, etc., is claimed. An individual DOMICILED outside Wilmington is a bona fide non-resident.
2. Where non-resident actually works ENTIRELY WITHIN Wilmington, he may not exclude any portion of his earnings including compensation for holidays, vacation, annual leave, sick or disability leave, Saturdays and Sundays.
3. Dates worked out of the city must be listed in chronological order and the respective locations must be shown (e.g. Jan 5, Cleveland, OH). Dates worked at home for which earnings may be allocated out of the city must be identified with an "(H)". (e.g. Aug 7, (H) Chadds Ford, PA). Effective January 1, 2020, earnings on days worked at home may be allocated out of the City only if you worked at home for the convenience of your employer or you were required to work at home as a condition of employment. Days worked at home for any other reason are allocated to the place you regularly report to work. See section 203 of the Earned Income Tax Regulations. Do not submit schedules that do not follow the required format. Convert all hours into days (eight (8) hours equals one day) and round to the nearest 1/2 day.
4. You must complete the schedule of non-working days. Saturdays and Sundays that you worked cannot be included in non-working days. Only holidays, vacation, illness, and other dates must be listed in chronological order. For dates listed as "other", please indicate what they are. If you are employed on a full-time basis, include any other type of PAID leave. Do not include any unpaid leave.
5. The allocation percentage MUST be rounded to the nearest tenth of a percent (.001).
6. Explain any differences between your Wilmington wages and your Federal wages, state wages, social security wages, and medicare wages.
7. Where business travel and other business expense are included on Form W-2, please attach a copy of Federal Form 2106, Employee Business Expenses.
8. P.O. Box addresses are not acceptable, if your W2 form has a P.O. Box address, then you must provide a copy of a deed or lease for your residential address.
